

Scholarship Committee for international Students

Aid of Final Degree

The Aid of Final Degree addresses to international students who are planning their final academic degree. Consisting of a financial aid this program supports international students to perform in their final studies with a less of a financial boundary. The following criteria refers to applicants who wish to receive the Aid of Final Degree:

- Indigence (e.g. if previous study terms where financed through full-/part time employment).
- good performances in previous grades of studies
- it is desirable to achieve a well-waged final degree within the next 6 months
- letter of reference

Self-Application as well as an academic nomination is accepted

Application Documents:

- filled application-/ nomination documents including a picture (preferable not older than a year)
- informal letter of justification
- Curriculum Vitae in table form
- Previous achieved study degrees (schedule form)
- Student Identification Card
- letter of reference, preferable by academic advisor of final thesis

Dates: - July 15 - financial aid starting in October (at the earliest) of the same year
- January 30 - financial aid starting in March (at the earliest) of the same year

Amount of Scholarship and Length:

- Students receive an amount to 650 Euro per month (for 1 to a maximum of 6 months)
- Graduates/Doctorals receive an amount to 750 Euro per month (for 1 to a maximum of 6 months)

According to experience scholarships are mostly awarded for 1 month.

Please send application documents/nominations to:

Stipendienkommission für internationale Studierende

über:

International Office der Universität Bielefeld
Raum D0-120
Universitätsstr. 25
33615 Bielefeld